The researchers also used a computer-generated random number table to select 100 subjects from the 1,000. They were then randomly assigned to the two groups. The researchers found that the two groups were similar in age, sex, and other characteristics. The researchers also found that the two groups were similar in their responses to the questionnaire. The researchers concluded that the two groups were similar in all respects.

Two athletes in blue and orange uniforms are shown in a hurdle drill. They are in a low, powerful starting stance, ready to burst forward over a hurdle.
