Tough Justice Bad Judgment 2:

Henry Wade's Tough Justice Edward Gray, 2010-11 Charles Chatman believed he would die in a Texas prison. He was sent there at age 21 convicted of raping a 52 year old white woman in his neighborhood and sentenced to 99 years. The victim had picked his picture out of a line up and the jury had ignored the testimony of his witnesses that he was at work when the rape occurred. His court appointed attorney made feeble efforts to defend him. He had served 27 years when Michelle Moore a public defender working with the Innocence Project of Texas arranged a DNA test which proved him innocent and District Judge John Creuzot ordered him released from prison. Richard Miles was more fortunate. After he had served 14 years of a 40 year sentence for murder, investigators for Centurion Ministries discovered police reports which had been hidden from him and his attorney Ed Gray. A new trial was ordered then the sole witness who had identified Miles recanted his testimony and claimed that he had been instructed to lie by a Dallas prosecutor. Over 250 prisoners in the U S have been exonerated in the last 20 years, some on death row and others serving long sentences. DNA testing has freed the majority, proof of false identification and misconduct by police and prosecutors the others. Dallas County with one percent of the U S population has accounted for 25 wrongful convictions, ten percent of the total. Henry Wade, Dallas County District Attorney for 32 years, ran the most aggressive and successful prosecutor's office in the country. Ed Gray, as Assistant District Attorney and criminal defense attorney, had a ringside seat to the Henry Wade era. In these pages he explains how some of the innocent were convicted. TOUGH JUSTICE is the first book which attempts to portray the career and the history of Henry Wade, the most famous prosecutor in the history of Texas and perhaps the United States. After graduating from the University of Texas Business School and Southern Methodist University School of Law, Ed Gray was a civil law firm associate when he was appointed to represent an indigent defendant in Dallas District Court in 1969. In his first trial, Ed won a Not Guilty verdict and a job offer from District Attorney Henry Wade. He was quickly promoted to Felony Court where he led the Dallas D A's office in trials and convictions for the next four years. He was lead counsel in 15 murder trials, 13 attempted murder and aggravated assault trials, 8 rape trials and 49 robbery trials resulting in sentences as high as death and 1200 years and only one Not Guilty verdict. Ed Gray has been a board certified criminal defense attorney since 1975 and has tried 525 criminal jury trials in state and federal courts.

Tough Justice Ian Dunbar, Anthony Langdon, 1998 The authors trace the developments that have led to prison overcrowding before proposing a possible solution to the problem. They compare the British approach to the way that US European countries handle these issues.

Christian Morality and Justice Alan J. Talley, 2009 This faith formation program introduces young Catholic adolescents to Jesus Christ in a new way and inspires them to follow him. Fostering the faith of young adolescents involves helping them to make connections between the Catholic faith and everyday life.

'Hell': A Hard Look at a Hard Question David J. Powys, 2007-01-01 I welcome this rigorous examination of some of the many questions which are raised by the doctrine of hell. At a time when it is rare to hear even heaven spoken about in our churches it is encouraging that this sober theme is once more in our sights It was plainly often on the lips of Jesus Nigel M de S Cameron Trinity International University Dr Powys has pursued a rigorous examination of the Scriptures He rivets our attention on what the New Testament actually says about the fate of the unrighteous This is a seminal work David Claydon Federal Secretary CMS Australia The author writing from a position of biblical conservatism has presented a powerful convincing and scholarly case for the view that the unrighteous will forfeit resurrection life in the Kingdom of God It is in my judgment the most thorough treatment of the issue in recent years John W Pryor Macquarie University This book is an impressive thorough discussion of a thorny question Dr Powys is at home in many branches of biblical studies He examines the biblical evidence carefully and sets his case out lucidly and with real insight showing convincingly how ill founded are many ancient and many recent views on the fate of the unrighteous His own solution of a set of complex exegetical and theological issues is judicious and clearly the end result of careful thought from the Foreword by Graham Stanton University of Cambridge David Powys has made a significant contribution to an increasingly important debate His book s real strength lies in its very careful study of New Testament teaching in the light of a comprehensive analysis of the Old Testament and Jewish literature This literature is rightly seen not merely as background but as the key to a right understanding of the New Testament teaching I wish that such a clear discussion had been available when I first began engaging with these questions Stephen Travis St John s College Nottingham David Powys was educated at The University of Melbourne He gained degrees in arts and social work studied theology at Ridley College and was ordained in 1981 Dr Powys has ministered in four Melbourne parishes He is an Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of Melbourne and a member of Archbishop in Council and National Synod He was awarded the Doctor of Theology by the Australian College of Theology in 1994 for his The Hermeneutics of Hell The present volume is a slightly abbreviated version of that dissertation Hard Bible Words made Easy.
