Tourism and Innovation C. Michael Hall,Allan M. Williams,2019-11-25 This ground breaking volume on the relationships between tourism and innovation provides an overview of relevant innovation theories and related literatures on entrepreneurship productivity regional development and competitiveness and their significance to contemporary tourism practices Innovation is a key concept in business and entrepreneurial studies and the broader social sciences Yet despite its policy and academic importance historically little attention has been given to the role of innovation in tourism and the corresponding contribution of tourism related human mobility to regional firm and product innovation This book emphasises that innovation in tourism is much more than a series of technological innovations as important as they are and instead needs to be understood in an economic social and political context with particular stress being placed on the extent to which innovations are shaped by the framework of governance and regulation as well as by institutional factors and activities of individual actors and entrepreneurs It is structured so as to introduce the reader to the overall significance of innovation at various levels and the role that innovation plays in firm and place competition Supported with case studies throughout this book is essential reading for all tourism students

Religious Tourism and Events Maximiliano E Korstanje, Razaq Raj, Kevin Griffin, 2018-04-25 Travellers today face many challenges from risk and safety issues Focusing in particular on risk and safety issues faced by visitors to holy sites this book looks at the unique challenges raised where annual religious festivals are commemorated with mass gatherings lasting for days and large crowds require detailed disaster management plans Beginning with a general section on risk management covering areas such as disaster management terrorism crime and security the book then delves deeper into specific issues and challenges It reviews important topics such as understanding the behaviour of crowds how to perform a risk assessment for a sacred space and travelling in what some would regard as an increasingly hostile world Mitigating risk at mass gathering events and festivals is an area that still needs further research but this book brings together current thought and provides a valuable reference for those studying religion tourism and events as well as event organizers emergency and hospital services and local authorities The Antarctic Legal System and Environmental Issues Gianfranco Tamburelli, 2006

World Tourism Cities Robert Maitland, Peter Newman, 2014-05-01 This book presents new research on the capacity of big cities to generate new tourism areas as visitors discover and help create new urban experiences off the beaten track It examines similarities and differences in these processes in a group of established world cities located in the global circuits of tourism The cities featured are Berlin New York London Paris and Sydney In these cities experienced city visitors are contributing to the discovery of new places to visit Many neighbourhoods close to the historic centre and to traditional attractions offer the mix of cultural difference and consumption opportunities that can create new experiences for distinctive groups of city users Each of the cities included in the book offers rich experiences of the re imagining and re branding of neighbourhoods off the beaten track and informative stories of the complex relationships between visitors residents and others and of the ambitions of public policy to reproduce these new tourism experiences in other parts of the city World Tourism Cities brings together current research in each of the cities and relates the often separate field of tourism research to some of the mainstream themes of debate in urban studies addressing topics such as consumption markets and spaces Drawing on original research in this important group of cities this book has significant messages for public policy In addition the book engages directly with a range of important current academic debates about world cities about cities as sites of consumption and about the smaller scales at which urban neighbourhoods are being transformed The range of cities and the messages about the making of attractive places provides a timely resource for those focused in this area and the book will also have an appeal among those experienced and sophisticated city users that it focuses on
