The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Marketing Scott McCabe,2014-01-03 Tourism has often been described as being about selling dreams tourist experiences being conceptualized as purely a marketing confection a socially constructed need However the reality is that travel for leisure business meetings sports or visiting loved ones has grown to be a very real sector of the global economy requiring sophisticated business and marketing practices The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Marketing explores and critically evaluates the current debates and controversies inherent to the theoretical methodological and practical processes of marketing within this complex and multi sector industry It brings together leading specialists from range of disciplinary backgrounds and geographical regions to provide reflection and empirical research on this complex relationship The Handbook is divided in to nine inter related sections Part 1 deals with shifts in the context of marketing practice and our understanding of what constitutes value for tourists Part 2 explores macromarketing and tourism Part 3 deals with strategic issues Part 4 addresses recent advances in research Part 5 focuses on developments in tourist consumer behaviour Part 6 looks at micromarketing Part 7 moves on to destination marketing and branding issues Part 8 looks at the influence of technological change on tourism marketing and Part 9 explores future directions This timely book offers the reader a comprehensive synthesis of this sub discipline conveying the latest thinking and research It will provide an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in tourism and marketing encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study This is essential reading for Tourism students researchers and academics as well as those of Marketing Business Events Management and Hospitality Management

The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-07-01 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies

Water-based Tourism, Sport, Leisure, and Recreation Experiences Gayle Jennings, 2007 Offers a unique insight into these growing areas of the tourism industry looking at their interaction market profiles advantages and their effects on the environment Gayle Jennings Griffith University Australia

The Critical Turn in Tourism Studies Irena Ateljevic, Annette Pritchard, Nigel Morgan, 2007-03-15 New approaches to tourism study demonstrate a notable critical turn a shift in thought that emphasises interpretative and critical modes of tourism inquiry The chapters in this volume reflect this emerging critical school of tourism studies and represent a coordinated effort of tourism scholars whose work engages innovative research methodologies Since such work has been dispersed across a variety of tourism related and other research fields this book responds to a pressing need to consolidate recent advances in a single text Adopting a broad definition of criticality the contributors seek to find fresh ways of theorising tourism by locating the phenomenon in its wider political economic cultural and social contexts The collection addresses the power relations underpinning the production of academic knowledge presents a range of qualitative data collection methods which confront the field's dominant post positivist approaches foregrounds the emotional dynamics of research relations and explores the personal the political and the situated nature of research journeys The book has been divided into two parts with the essays in the first part establishing a context specific framework for engaging philosophical and theoretical debates in contemporary tourism enquiry The second set of essays then present discuss and critique specific methodologies research techniques methods of interpretation and writing strategies all of which are in some sense illustrative of critical tourism research Contributors range from postgraduate students to established academics and are drawn from both the geopolitical margins and the powerbases of the tourism academy Their various relationships with the English speaking academy thus range from relative outsider to well positioned insider and as a result their essays are reflective of a range of locations within the complexly spun web of academic power relations and social divisions Quality

Tourism Experiences Gayle Jennings, Norma Nickerson, 2006-08-11 The theme of the edited book acknowledges the multiple meanings of quality tourism experiences the diverse contexts in which tourism occurs and the varied stakeholders associated directly or indirectly with the phenomenon of tourism Quality tourism experiences is a widely used phrase in tourism and tourism related texts and is associated with a diversity of meanings and usage Meanings are ascribed by industry business government agencies tourists community and academics The phrase is used to argue for example for positive social impacts economic benefits environmental protection government policy formulation discrimination between tourism products as well as issues associated with sustainability Subsequently the phrase quality tourism experiences is not a nomothetic term but rather one associated with multiple interpretations and meanings The book's overarching tenet is that quality is a socially constructed term as are the terms tourism experiences Authors investigate the role of the mass media the role of travel providers the role of host communities the role of tourists and the role of government at all its levels From an academic perspective quality tourism experiences are associated with interaction between host and guest tourists and community perspectives the classification of type of tourism product tourism industry and government sector perspectives market differentiation and development tourist perspectives the notion of an integrated system and benefits from an economic perspective Similarly quality is associated with different meanings and is used in a variety of contexts within tourism literature For example quality is associated with service quality quality assurance auditing and control perceptions of quality at an individual business community level that is stakeholder level and in regard to product and market differentiation

The book draws together writers from different backgrounds and interdisciplinary interests and research methodologies as a consequence the book provides a model of the way researchers can work together to illuminate an area and to provide multiple representations and interpretations of that area Moreover the book demonstrates interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and intradisciplinary approaches and collaborations Kathleen Andereck Ph D Arizona State University West Sue Beeton Ph D La Trobe University Heather E Bowen Ph D George Mason University Kelly S Bricker Ph D West Virginia University Barbara Carmichael Ph D Wilfrid Laurier University Maggie Daniels Ph D George Mason University Gayle Jennings Ph D Central Queensland University Claudia Jurowski Ph D Northern Arizona University Deborah Kerstetter Ph D Penn State University Norma Nickerson Ph D University of Montana Lori Pennington Gray Ph D University of Florida Carla Almeida Santos Ph D University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Betty Weiler Ph D Monash University

Marketing of Tourism Experiences Noel Scott, Eric Laws, Philipp Boksberger, 2013-09-13 This book provides a review of the current theory and practice of experiential tourism and how it is marketed Many societies today are characterised by widespread individual wealth of an order previously confined to the elite with the consequence that ownership of ordinary physical goods is no longer a distinguishing factor Instead people are now seeking the extraordinary with examples being bodies enhanced through surgery personal fitness trainers and in the case of leisure and tourism seeking unique and unusual places to visit and activities to undertake This trend manifests in the increasing consumption of services and the addition of experiential elements to physical goods by businesses aware of societal changes The trend is enhanced by rapidly changing technology and economic production methods providing new sectors of the world's population with access to the consumption experiences that are repeatedly featured in the media This is the experience economy characterised by a search by consumers for fantasies feelings and fun This book was based on a special issue of Journal of Hospitality Marketing Management
