Towards The Primeval Lightning Field:

Towards the Primeval Lightning Field Will Alexander, 2014 Poetry African American Studies Philosophy Essays Now available as a second edition with a new preface from the author Will Alexander's TOWARDS THE PRIMEVAL LIGHTNING FIELD O Books 1998 is a work of vertical philosophy revealing the strata of cultures and language like geographical layers seen all at once These essays comprise Alexander's search for origins outside the warrens of the visible revealing a singular imagination that moves with the force of a manifesto and the impossible dexterity of the unknown Described by Eliot Weinberger as probably the only African American poet to take Aim Césaire as a spiritual father Alexander's singular voice resonates far past the constrictions of the rational world His work resembles no one's and is instantly recognizable In part he is an ecstatic surrealist on imaginal hyperdrive He is probably the only African American poet to take Aim Césaire as a spiritual father Alexander is a poet whose ecstasy derives from the scientific description of the stuff and the workings of the world Eliot Weinberger Will Alexander is by far the most original poet working in the United States today A major force in the dissemination of surrealism there is absolutely no one who sounds like Alexander and he most emphatically sounds like no one else Justin Desmangles If the quotidian amounts to little more than a dossier of unitary suffering then Will Alexander's visionary essays commence the ignition of evolution beyond inclemency Césaire Lorca Cheikh Anta Diop non European philosophy and cosmology alchemical and anti-statist traditions all animate this work its range is incomparable André Breton wrote that for surrealism life is elsewhere TOWARDS THE PRIMEVAL LIGHTNING FIELD takes us in pleasure and terror along the way to that range shimmering beyond grim power where the waters and suns are both kindled by splendour Barry Maxwell

The Brimstone Boat rose hardly more than a quarter century later In this automatically extended poem we are witness to the passage of energies from the older to the younger poet as Alexander charts Lamantia's life and writings across a Renaissance globe It is here as well that Alexander succeeds Lamantia who died in 2005 as America's greatest living surrealist poet as the new poet at the helm on the brimstone boat on a voyage of perpetual exploration ANDREW JORON The volume starts off with the 81 pages of the title poem then 14 pages for three shorter poems followed by 19 pages devoted to a glossary then 50 pages for the content of four essays and finally 3 pages of post notes On the cover the frontispiece and the end page are three works by the American surrealist Marie Wilson also included are eight pencil drawings by Will Alexander and two large photographs of Lamantia and Alexander

Neo-surrealism, Or, The Sun at Night Andrew Joron, 2004 Poetry Cultural Writing

The history of neo surrealism in American poetry is not a linear story whose future is determined by its past It is a sleepwalker armed with reason As such it arrives both too late and too early a solar apparition at midnight NEO REALISM OR THE SUN Andrew Joron is a poet and translator who lives in Berkeley CA He is the author of several books including FATHOM 2003 selected by the Villiage Voice as one of the top 25 books of 2003 This Compost Jed Rasula,2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory The Best American Poetry 2004 Lyn Hejinian,David Lehman,2004-09-14 The eagerly anticipated new edition of the yearly anthology of contemporary American poetry is now a brand name in the literary world Research in African Literatures ,2005 What I Say Aldon Lynn Nielsen,Lauri Ramey,2015-06-15 What I Say Innovative Poetry by Black Writers in America is the second book in a landmark two volume anthology that explodes narrow definitions of African American poetry by examining experimental poems often excluded from previous scholarship The first volume Every Goodbye Ain t Gone covers the period from the end of World War II to the mid 1970s In What I Say editors Aldon Lynn Nielsen and Lauri Ramey have assembled a comprehensive and dynamic collection that brings this pivotal work up to the present day The elder poets in this collection such as Nathaniel Mackey C S Giscombe Will Alexander and Ron Allen came of age during and were powerfully influenced by the Black Arts Movement and What I Say grounds the collection in its black modernist roots In tracing the fascinating and unexpected paths of experimentation these poets explored however Nielsen and Ramey reveal the tight delineations of African American poetry that omitted noncanonical forms This invigorating panoply of work when restored brings into focus the creatively elastic frontiers and multifaceted expressions of contemporary black poetry Several of the poets discussed in What I Say forged relationships with members of the L A N G U A G E poetry movement and participated in the broader community of innovative poetry that emerged in the late 1970s and early 1980s and continues to exert a powerful influence today Each volume can stand on its own and reading them in tandem will provide a clear vision of how innovative African American poetries have evolved across the twentieth century and into the twenty first What I Say is infinitely teachable compelling and rewarding It will appeal to a broad readership of poets poetics teachers poetics scholars students of African American literature in nonnarrative forms Afro futurism and what lies between the modern and the contemporary in global and localized writing practices The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century Douglas Messerli,2000 The fifth volume of this acclaimed anthology features the work of innovative poets of southern California This gathering of 28 poets does not write a particular kind of poetry but as individuals they have worked together through a series of intersecting ideas and interests to create some of the best writing of contemporary poetry contradicting many of the simplistic notions of people outside of the region In his introduction editor Douglas Messerli provides a complete history of the loosely knit group and the interrelationships within it
