Resources in Education ,1995-05 Realms Of Knowledge Leslie Santee Siskin, 2014-01-21 This study examines academic departments as a context for teaching in the secondary school It explores why teachers find departments to be crucial to the high school setting In all three schools studied and in all four subjects English Maths Science and Social Science teachers even those who felt isolated in their classrooms located their sense of professional identity practice and community in their departments Departments are seen as boundaries for dividing the school centres of social interaction a micro political decision making forum as a subject knowledge category Those concerns are important at this time as various attacks are being made on school structures and subject and administration fragmentation in these cases subjects are seen as obstacles to change To subject groups they are viewed as potential vehicles to carry and confirm the message

Education for Victory ,1944 New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1902 Theology in Motion Aimee Allison Hein,2024-11-19 Christian responses to global migration are as loud as they are numerous With voices evoking either the injunction to love the stranger or a commitment to the rule of law this polarized cacophony has become yet another theater in the culture war But migration is not an idea It is not an abstraction Migration is about people present in our midst or encountered at our edges Their presence at our borders forces us to consider the core values we want most to uphold and the stories that taught us those values in the first place In the United States our most popular origin stories tell of a nation that fought off tyranny and committed itself to liberty democracy and the dream of an unencumbered pursuit of happiness of a life lived on one s own terms But is this the whole story Whose perspectives have shaped the stories we tell and which perspectives have been ignored Theology in Motion tracks the story of the United States how it formed and how it came to dominate the land that now rests between its borders to consider more fully what type of nation the US has been and the type of global neighbor it has chosen to be From a Christian moral perspective this history helps us look to the future by analyzing how our past choices have left us with present responsibilities Taking these responsibilities seriously and pursuing more just global relationships provides a way forward in which all people might participate and to which Christians are called Education for Victory Olga Anna Jones,1943 College Music Curricula for a New Century Robin D. Moore,2017 College Music Curricula for a New Century considers what a more inclusive and socially engaged curriculum of musical study might look like in universities Its goal is to create dialogue about how to transition to new paradigms and how they might be implemented in practical terms based on existing experiments taking place nationally and internationally Creating the Suburban School Advantage John L. Rury,2020-04-15 Creating the Suburban School Advantage explains how American suburban school districts gained a competitive edge over their urban counterparts John L Rury provides a national overview of the process focusing on the period between 1950 and 1980 and presents a detailed study of metropolitan Kansas City a region representative of trends elsewhere While big city districts once were widely seen as superior and attracted families seeking the best educational opportunities for their children suburban school systems grew rapidly in the post World War II era as middle class and more affluent families moved to those communities As Rury relates at the same time economically dislocated African Americans migrated from the South to center city neighborhoods testing the capacity of urban institutions As demographic trends drove this urban suburban divide a suburban ethos of localism contributed to the socioeconomic exclusion that became a hallmark of outlying school systems School districts located wholly or partly within the municipal boundaries of Kansas City Missouri make for revealing cases that illuminate our understanding of these national patterns As Rury demonstrates struggles to achieve greater educational equity and desegregation in urban centers contributed to so called white flight and what Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan considered to be a crisis of urban education in 1965 Despite the often valiant efforts made to serve

inner city children and bolster urban school districts this exodus Rury cogently argues created a new metropolitan educational hierarchy a mirror image of the urban centric model that had prevailed before World War II The stubborn perception that suburban schools are superior based on test scores and budgets has persisted into the twenty first century and instantiates today s metropolitan landscape of social economic and educational inequality Journal of Education, 1884 The Lyceum Magazine Ralph Albert Parlette, 1918 ICT Matters Liz Hankin, 2004 There is a full colour Pupil Book for every year of Key Stage 3 The Politics of Differentiation in Schools Martin Mills, Amanda Keddie, Peter Renshaw, Sue Monk, 2016-10-26 In many English speaking countries teachers are encouraged to differentiate their classrooms and in some cases through various policy mechanisms This encouragement is often accompanied by threats and sanctions for not making the grade By exploring the ways in which one education system in Australia has mandated differentiation through an audit of teacher practices this book provides a timely engagement with the relationship between differentiated classrooms and social justice It covers tensions for instance between providing culturally appropriate classrooms including constructing engaging and relevant curricula and lowering expectations for students who have traditionally been marginalised by schooling The data for this book has been collected from the same group of teachers over a period of three years and offers detailed insights into how a particular politics of differentiation has played itself out in the context of a global reform movement that has focused on improving student outcomes A World of Giving Patricia L Rosenfield, 2014-11-04 The age of international philanthropy is upon us Today many of America s most prominent foundations support institutions or programs abroad but few have been active on the global stage for as long as Carnegie Corporation of New York A World of Giving provides a thorough objective examination of the international activities of Carnegie Corporation one of America s oldest and most respected philanthropic institutions which was created by steel baron Andrew Carnegie in 1911 to support the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding The book explains in detail the grantmaking process aimed at promoting understanding across cultures and research in many nations across the world A World of Giving highlights the vital importance of Carnegie Corporation s mission in guiding its work and the role of foundation presidents as thought and action leaders The presidents trustees and later on staff members are the human element that drives philanthropy and they are the lens through which to view the inner workings of philanthropic institutions with all of their accompanying strengths and limitations especially when embarking on international activities It also does not shy away from controversy including early missteps in Canada race and poverty issues in the 1930s and 1980s related to South Africa promotion of area studies affected by the McCarthy Era the critique of technical assistance in developing countries the century long failure to achieve international understanding on the part of Americans and recent critiques by Australian historians of the Corporation s nation transforming work there This is a comprehensive review of one foundation s work on the international stage as well as a model for how philanthropy can be practiced in a deeply interconnected world where conflicts abound but progress can be spurred by thoughtful forward looking institutions following humanistic principles
