international relations and global studies The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-15 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world's Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world The Middle East and North Africa Alasdair Drysdale, 2024-10-15 This contemporary text the first in over a decade on the region presents the geography of the Middle East and North Africa defined as the Arab World Israel Turkey Iran and Afghanistan Thematically organized the book's eleven chapters focus on the region's physical and climatic setting demographic characteristics migration patterns religious and linguistic diversity political map offshore claims oil and gas resources and subregions and states Within this framework Drysdale emphasizes pressing current problems the impact of climate change in a region where some areas already suffer from extreme summer heat and aridity the challenge of providing additional water in a region where per capita availability of freshwater is already the lowest in the world the impact of high fertility and rapid population growth in a fragile environment where economies are often unable to absorb young workers entering the labor force the looming prospect of an aging population the effects of out and in migration the diverse impact and role of Islam in daily and public life the integrative consequences of linguistic and ethnic diversity the evolution and imperfections of the political map ongoing territorial and boundary disputes that often have global repercussions external dependence on the region's prolific oil and gas resources and the extreme regional inequalities associated with their presence or absence This timely and insightful analysis is essential reading for students of the region who need a better understanding of key regional characteristics challenges and issues World Regions Global Context, Pearson New International Edition EBook Sallie A. Marston, 2013 World Regions in Global Context presents a strong global sensibility and an emphasis on current concerns with models of interdependent development spatial and social inequality and questions of spatial justice The authors maintain that regions are the outcomes of a set of twin forces of globalization and regionalization Therefore each regional chapter stresses the global systems of connection that drive unique regional processes making regions different By studying regions students not only learn the critical elements of different places but also come to understand the fundamental p Human Security and Philanthropy Samiul Hasan, 2015-04-20 Muslims for hundreds of years have been involved in philanthropic activities targeting poor and needy people through varied types of third sector organizations TSOs Nonetheless many people in Muslim majority countries MMCs not having freedom from hunger face human security crises Not much is known about the TSOs or their human security provisions in MMCs To fill this knowledge gap this Volume documents and analyses philanthropy and all types of third sector organizations including the awqaf Muslim endowments vis vis human security in MMCs The study is comprehensive in treating the subject matter analyzing the legal environment characteristics extent and functioning of all forms of the third sector and their human security performances and in geographic coverage incorporating all forty seven Muslim majority countries in Africa and Asia It is also innovative expounding TSO density analysis state support score SSS and a third sector capability measure TCM to study their interrelationships It is an essential unique reference book for students and scholars of the third sector and human security international organizations development agencies donor governments security experts and in particular anybody with interests in Islam and MMCs Cultures of Globalization Kevin Archer, M. Martin Bosman, M. Mark Amen, Ella Schmidt, 2013-09-13 Much has been written about the economic and political implications of the contemporary process of globalization Much less has been written about the specific cultural implications Previously published as a special issue of Globalizations this book seeks to add to our knowledge of the latter by bringing together researchers from different disciplines with the common goal of exploring the emerging cultural relations among groups and individuals in terms of coherence and hybridity identity and allegiance and cooperation and conflict As the world's peoples increasingly travel work trade recreate and otherwise communicate with each other relative cultural isolation and isolationism is becoming less and less possible What does this mean for cultural coherence stability and identity across the planet What have been the cultural implications of and reactions to this increasing global interdependence among peoples From more global and theoretical perspectives to more empirical and case specific approaches the various authors attempt to come to terms with the ever evolving and complex cultural content of contemporary globalization
