Routledge Handbook of Borders and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy, Alon Gelbman, 2022-12-13 The Routledge Handbook of Borders and Tourism examines the multiple and diverse relationships between global tourism and political boundaries. With contributions from international leading thinkers, this book offers theoretical frameworks for understanding borders and tourism and empirical examples from borderlands throughout the world. This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of historical and contemporary thinking about evolving national frontiers and tourism. Tourism by definition entails people crossing borders of various scales and is manifested in a wide range of conceptualizations of human mobility. Borders significantly influence tourism and determine how the industry grows, is managed, and manifests on the ground. Simultaneously, tourism strongly affects borders, border laws, border policies, and international relations. This book highlights the traditional relationships between borders and tourism, including borders as attractions, barriers, transit spaces, and determiners of tourism landscapes. It offers deeper insights into current thinking about space and place, mobilities, globalization, citizenship, conflict and peace, trans-frontier cooperation, geopolitics, otherness, and here versus there, the heritagization of borders, and memory making, biodiversity, and bordering, debordering, and rebordering processes. Offering an unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at political boundaries and tourism, this handbook will be an essential resource for all students and researchers of tourism, geopolitics, and border studies, geography, anthropology, sociology, history, international relations, and global studies.

Contemporary Muslim Travel Cultures C. Michael Hall, Siamak Seyfi, S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh, 2022-07-26 This timely volume brings together various issues in Muslim consumer cultures and provides a comprehensive account of Muslim tourism and tourist behaviour. Islam is a major international religion, and Muslims are a majority of the population in many countries in Asia, the Middle East, and North Africa. The growth of a substantial middle class, the development of Islamic consumer cultures, rising Muslim market consumption in non-Muslim majority destinations, and the growing significance of intra-Muslim traffic and rising outbound tourism expenditure in emerging Muslim markets have all contributed to substantial interest in Muslim tourism. However, travel by Muslims is about far more than the Hajj and Umrah, as important as they are, as acts of devotion. Instead, although often portrayed in the West as a monolithic religion, Muslim travel and leisure behaviour is very diverse, with different traditions and cultures leading to a range of expressions of tourism-related consumption culture and practices. Drawing on a range of empirical studies undertaken in different social and economic contexts and countries, this book provides a well-balanced portrayal of the Muslim tourism experience and practices. This book makes a substantial contribution to an improved understanding of Muslim travel culture and will be required reading for anyone interested in this fast-growing market.

Perspectives on the Transition Toward Green and Climate Neutral Economies in Asia Ordóñez de Pablos, Patricia, Almunawar, Mohammad Nabil, Anshari, Muhammad, 2023-07-24 Knowledge management and advanced information technologies such as AI, IoT, machine learning and more can create digital tools and solutions to build more resilient climate neutral and green economies and societies. These digital tools and solutions and knowledge management can have a heavy impact on the achievement of sustainable development goals. SDGs in Asia: Perspectives on the Transition Toward Green and Climate Neutral Economies in Asia offers innovative conceptual frameworks and theories, case studies and empirical studies to understand how knowledge management and digital innovation can foster the transition towards more circular and climate neutral economies as well as greener economies in Asia. This book discusses how key and enabling digital tools and solutions and knowledge management can support the achievement of SDGs by 2030. Covering topics such as climate neutral economies, image recognition and usability evaluation, this premier reference source is an excellent resource for deans, heads of departments, directors, politicians, policymakers, corporate heads, senior general managers, managing directors, librarians, students and educators of higher education, academicians and researchers. The Higher Education Institutions Handbook, 2012. From Urban National Parks to Natured Cities in the Global South Frédéric Landy, 2018-07-20. This important volume focuses on the sensitive issue of interrelationships between national parks situated near or within urban areas and their urban environment. It engages with both urban and conservation issues and compares four national parks located in four large cities in the global South: Rio de Janeiro, Cape Town, Mumbai and Nairobi. Though primarily undertaken as academic research, the project has intensively collaborated with the institutions in charge of these parks. The comparative structure of this volume is also original and unique; each of the chapters incorporates insight from all four sites as far as possible. The term naturbanity expresses the necessity for cities endowed with a national park to integrate it into their functioning. Conversely, such parks must take into account their location in an urban environment both as a source of heavy pressures on nature and as a nexus of incentives to support their conservation. The principle of non exclusivity, that is neither the city nor the park has a right nor even the possibility to negate the other's presence, summarizes the main argument of this book. Naturbanity thus blurs the old/modern dichotomy of nature/culture, animals and human beings can often jump the physical and ideological walls separating many parks from the adjacent city. The 13 chapters and substantive introduction of this volume discuss various aspects of naturbanity: the histories of park creation, interaction between people and parks, urban governance and parks, urban conservation models, wildlife management, environmental education and so on. This is a must read for students and researchers interested in social ecology, social geography, conservation, urban planning and ecological policy. Crisis Management William Rick Crandall, John A. Parnell, John E. Spillan, 2013-02-27. Offering a strategic orientation to crisis management, this fully updated edition of Crandall, Parnell and Spillan's Crisis Management helps readers understand the importance of planning for crises within the wider framework of an organization's regular strategic management process. This strikingly engaging and easy to follow text focuses on a four stage crisis management framework: 1. Landscape Survey, identifying potential crisis vulnerabilities; 2. Strategic Planning, organizing the crisis management team and writing the plan; 3.

Crisis Management addressing the crisis when it occurs and 4 Organizational Learning applying lessons from crises so they will be prevented or mitigated in the future The second edition emphasizes the importance of managing both the internal landscape those stakeholders within the organization such as the employees owners and management and the external landscape those stakeholders outside of the organization such as the media customers suppliers general public government agencies and special interest groups      Forest Landscape Restoration John Stanturf,David Lamb,Palle Madsen,2012-11-28 Restoration ecology as a scientific discipline developed from practitioners efforts to restore degraded land with interest also coming from applied ecologists attracted by the potential for restoration projects to apply and or test developing theories on ecosystem development Since then forest landscape restoration FLR has emerged as a practical approach to forest restoration particularly in developing countries where an approach which is both large scale and focuses on meeting human needs is required Yet despite increased investigation into both the biological and social aspects of FLR there has so far been little success in systematically integrating these two complementary strands Bringing experts in landscape studies natural resource management and forest restoration together with those experienced in conflict management environmental economics and urban studies this book bridges that gap to define the nature and potential of FLR as a truly multidisciplinary approach to a global environmental problem The book will provide a valuable reference to graduate students and researchers interested in ecological restoration forest ecology and management as well as to professionals in environmental restoration natural resource management conservation and environmental policy      Handbook on Diversity and Inclusion Indices Ng, Eddy S.,Stamper, Christina L.,Klarsfeld, Alain,Han, Yu J.,2021-07-31 This Handbook on Diversity and Inclusion Indices critically examines many of the popular and frequently cited indices related to DEI benchmarking and progress tracking The goal is to provide a better understanding of the indices construction strengths and weaknesses intended applications contribution to research and progress towards diversity and equity goals      Tourism Management Clare Inkson,Lynn Minnaert,2012-04-04 This text provides concise introduction to all the core topics of tourism management Covering both key theory and practice it introduces students to general management issues across the whole tourism sector in an accessible and manageable way It integrates the themes of sustainability internationalism technology and globalization throughout to provide a thoroughly modern approach to the study of tourism      Travel and Tourism Richard Sharpley,2006-11-15 The SAGE Course Companion in Travel and Tourism is an accessible introduction to the subject that will help readers extend their understanding of key concepts and enhance their thinking skills in line with course requirements It provides support on how to revise for exams how to present calculations and how to prepare for and write assessed pieces Readers are encouraged not only to think like a Travel and Tourism professional but also to think about the subject critically Designed to complement existing textbooks for the course the companion provides Easy access to the key themes in Travel and Tourism and an overview of its business context Helpful summaries of the approach taken by the main textbooks on the course

Guidance on the essential study skills required to pass the course Sample exam questions and answers with common pitfalls to avoid A tutor's eye view of what course examiners are looking for A road map for the book to help readers quickly find the information they need The SAGE Course Companion in Travel and Tourism is much more than a revision guide for undergraduates it is an essential tool that will help readers take their course understanding to new levels and achieve success in their undergraduate course
