18 and over Parker I knew when I received this assignment that I wasn't serious about it. A wounded vet. Get real. There's no way in hell I could find anything to say to him other than thank you for your service. Everyone in class thought that assignment of adopting a veteran was a cool idea so I said Whatever and threw myself into writing the best letter I could. I included everything I thought a soldier would want to hear who was away from home. I could have just written a simple letter but being an over achiever yeah right that's why my parents demanded Either you go to college or you're getting out of here. That was the main reason I found myself enrolled in college not expecting to ever think about anything but partying and whatever a gay man did who had no complications in his personal life. Now I'm expected to write letters WTF. Talking about complicated Text maybe but writing letters get real. That's above my pay grade. However I needed to graduate so I put my heart and soul into those letters and the results were unexpected. Now that soldier expects to meet a beautiful thoughtful and sensual woman. I hate to shatter his heart because I'm anything but that. How do I tell him I'm not a woman I'm a man and I'm gay.
