(Montana Rescue Book #3) Susan May Warren,2017-07-04 Champion backcountry snowboarder Gage Watson has left the limelight behind after the death of one of his fans After being sued for negligence and stripped of his sponsorships he s remade his life as a ski patrol in Montana s rugged mountains as well as serving on the PEAK Rescue team But he can t seem to find his footing or forget the woman he loved who betrayed him Senator and former attorney Ella Blair spends much of her time in the limelight as the second youngest senator in the country But she has a secret one that cost Gage his career More than anything she wants to atone for her betrayal of him in the courtroom and find a way to help him put his career back on track When Ella's brother goes missing on one of Glacier National Park's most dangerous peaks Gage and his team are called in for the rescue But Gage isn't so sure he wants to help the woman who destroyed his life More when she insists on joining the search he'll have to keep her safe while finding her reckless brother a recipe for disaster when a snowstorm hits the mountain But old sparks relight as they search for the missing snowboarder and suddenly they are faced with emotions neither can deny But when Ella's secret is revealed can they learn to trust each other even when disaster happens again

Fall for Him Andie Burke, 2024-09-03 In Fall for Him by Andie Burke seven hundred fifty square feet isn't enough for the home renovation fueled hatred and the building sexual tension Dylan Gallagher's hot neighbor loathed him from the second he moved in and causing a flood falling through the floor and landing directly onto that same neighbor's bed probably means that's unlikely to change The poorly timed It's Raining Men joke didn't help Meanwhile ER nurse Derek Chang's life is a literal when rains it pours nightmare A man he hates dropped into his life along with an astronomically expensive problem originating from Derek's own apartment's plumbing Also the local HOA tyrant has been sniffing around trying to fine him for his extended illicit banned breed dog sitting Since Dylan also wants to keep the catastrophe quiet he offers to fix the damage himself Dylan's sure he's not Derek's type so he focuses all his ADHD hyper fixation energy on getting the repair job done as quickly as possible avoiding doing anything stupid like acting on his very inconvenient crush Meanwhile Derek tries to ignore that the tattooed nerd sleeping on the couch is surprisingly witty smart and kind despite the long term grudge Derek's been holding against him But will squeezing all their emotional baggage plus a dog into a tiny one bedroom apartment be a major disaster or just prove they're made for each other Fall for Him combines banter hijinks and heart in a story of finding out what it means to fix things after your life crumbles

Music and History Jeffrey H. Jackson, Stanley C. Pelkey, 2005 This book begins with a simple question Why haven't historians and musicologists been talking to one another Historians frequently look to all aspects of human activity including music in order to better understand the past Musicologists inquire into the social cultural and historical contexts of musical works and musical practices to develop theories about the meanings of compositions and the significance of musical creation Both disciplines examine how people represent their experiences This collection of original essays the first of its kind argues that the conversation between scholars in the two fields can become richer and more mutually informing The volume features an eloquent personal essay by historian Lawrence W Levine whose work has inspired a whole generation of scholars working on African American music in American history The first six essays address widely different aspects of musical culture and history ranging from women and popular song during the French Revolution to nineteenth century music publishing in Philadelphia Pennsylvania Two additional essays by scholars outside of musicology and history represent a new kind of disciplinary bridging by using the methods of cultural studies to look at cross dressing in nineteenth and early twentieth century opera and blues responses to lynching in the New South The last four essays offer models for collaborative multidisciplinary research with a special emphasis on popular music Jeffrey H
