Translation, the Canon and its Discontents Miguel Ramalheite Gomes,2017-08-21 This collection addresses the complex process by which translation and other forms of rewriting have contributed to canon formation revision destabilization and dismantlement Through the play between version and subversion which is inherent to any form of rewriting these essays focusing on translations since the sixteenth century down to the present day stress the role of translation and adaptation as potentially transformative mediations capable of shaping and undermining identities Such manipulation is deeply ambivalent since it can be used as a means of disseminating the ideology of oppressive regimes at the expense of the source text but it can also serve to garner attention to marginalised texts This tense interplay between political social and aesthetic purposes almost inevitably generates discontents which may turn out to be the outcome of translation in general However discontent is a relational concept depending on where one stands in the field of competing positions that is the canon

Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh,2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story

The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg,2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates graduates and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time Drawing on current critical debates each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio cultural developments Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview ideal for students and general readers interested in the multifaceted and thriving medium of the short story in Canada The Influence of Literature in The Modern World Dr.K.R.Venkatesan,Dr.k.Naveen Kumar,J.VijuKumar, Rohinton Mistry Peter Morey,2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The award winning novelist Rohinton Mistry is recognised as one of the most important contemporary writers of postcolonial literature This study the first of its kind will provide scholars and students with an insight into the key features of Mistry s work Peter Morey suggests how the author s writing can be read in terms of recent Indian political history his native Zoroastrian culture and ethos conventions of oral storytelling common to Persia and South Asia and the experience of migration which now sees him living in Canada The texts are viewed through the lens of diaspora and minority discourse theories to show how Mistry s writing is illustrative of marginal positions in relation to sanctioned national identities

Diasporic Subjectivity and Cultural Brokering in Contemporary Post-Colonial Literatures Igor Maver,2009-06-16 Diasporic writing simultaneously asserts a sense of belonging and expresses a sense of being ethnic in a society of immigration The essays in this volume explore how contemporary diasporic writers in English use their works to mediate this dissonance and seek to work through the ethical political and personal affiliations of diasporic identities and subjectivities The essays call for a remapping of post colonial literatures and a reevaluation of the Anglophone literary canon by including post colonial diasporic literary discourses Demonstrating that an intercultural dialogue and constant cultural brokering are a must in our post colonial world this volume is a valuable contribution to the ongoing discourse on post colonial diasporic literatures and identities Tropes and Territories Marta Dvorak,W.H. New,2007-10-26 Tropes and Territories demonstrates how current debates in postcolonial criticism bear on the reading writing and status of short fiction These debates which hinge on competing definitions of trope motif vs rhetorical turn and territory political or aesthetic lead to studies of space place influence and writing and reading practices across cultural divides The essays also explore the character of diasporic writing the cultural significance of oral tale telling and interconnections between socio political issues and strategies of style Swimming Lessons and Other Stories from Firozsha Baag Rohinton Mistry,1997 Explores the crowded throbbing life of India in a collection of stories set in Firozsha Baag a Bombay apartment building characterized by an unexpected sense of community
