Halte à la mort des langues Claude Hagège, 2000-11-01 Sait on qu'en moyenne il meurt environ 25 langues chaque année Dans cent ans si rien ne change la moitié de ces langues seront mortes la fin du XXI<sup>e</sup> siècle il devrait donc en rester 2 500 environ et sans doute beaucoup moins encore si l'on tient compte d'une accélération fort possible du rythme de disparition Certes comme les civilisations les langues sont mortelles et le gouffre de l'histoire est assez grand pour toutes Pourtant la mort des langues a quelque chose de tout fait insolite et d'exaltant quand nous nous en apercevons les langues sont capables de résurrection Mais la vigilance s'impose faute de quoi toutes sont menacées y compris le français C H Claude Hagège est maître de recherche du CNRS et professeur au Collège de France Il est notamment l'auteur de L'Enfant aux deux langues Le français et les signes qui ont tant d'immenses succès

Les ailes du Sahel Le Zwarts, Rob G. Bijlsma, Jan van der Kamp, Eddy Wymenga, 2014-04-14 Living on the Edge examines the function of the Sahel region of Africa as an important wintering area for long distance migrant birds It describes the challenges the birds have to cope with climate change of course and rapid man made habitat changes related to deforestation irrigation and reclamation of wetlands How have all these changes affected the birds and have birds adapted to these changes Can we explain the changing numbers of breeding birds in Europe by changes in the Sahel or vice versa Winner of the BB BTO Best Bird Book Award 2010 The Jury commented It is a tremendous book in every department It marks a step change in our knowledge of the ecology of this critically important region in the European African migration system and of the many species familiar to us on their breeding grounds that winter there The authors combine the latest scientific information with vivid descriptions of landscapes and animals Their book is richly illustrated with large numbers of drawings maps and photographs by acclaimed experts The wealth of coloured graphics has been particularly well thought out and encourages readers to delve into the figures and learn more about the region rather than having the all too common opposite effect Summing up the jury praises not just the high quality of the texts the information and the illustrations but also the sheer pleasure of reading the book One of the key attributes of a good book is to be able to grip the reader's attention and transport him or her to another place We feel confident that Living on the edge will have that effect

Lifelong Education Paul Bélanger, Ettore Gelpi, 2012-12-06 The basic aim of this special issue is to focus on the profound change of tendency in education that is taking place at both the national and international level At a time when education and lifelong learning are increasingly merging into one process it is important to examine the ways in which educational policies and practices are evolving Consequently we invited a variety of contributors both men and women coming from different regions and encompassing both research and practice to identify significant phenomena and trends that are indicative of the ways in which systems of education are responding to new social and cultural demands We asked our contributors to show how educational reality in different countries is no longer confined within the temporal and spatial limits of institutional education to indicate how models of educational practice are changing to examine the extent to which the traditional cycles of human life are shifting their boundaries and to describe how these changes are manifesting themselves in different national contexts in both South and North We also asked our authors to pose questions raised by this educational revolution We have included 17 contributions some of the authors analysing particular national situations others drawing questions and observations from their own experiences or taking a searching look at education from the perspective of a practical involvement in social issues or from a background of research into popular arts and traditions Recueil Des Traités United Nations, 2004 Urban Poverty, 1995 Actes Du 2ème Congrès International de Paléontologie Humaine, Turin, 28 Septembre-3 Octobre 1987 Giacomo Giacobini, 1989 Sexe, genre et société-Engendrer les sciences sociales africaines IMAN Ayesha M., MAMA Amina et SOW Fatou (sous la direction de), 2004-11-01 Cet ouvrage représente la traduction du livre intitulé Engendering African social issu des travaux d'un atelier organisé par le CODESRIA en 1991 Les contributions réunies dans ce volume ont été rédigées selon des approches disciplinaires différentes mais leur point commun réside dans une volonté affirmée d'opérer une véritable rupture épistémologique dans les sciences sociales africaines Elephants and Rhinos in Africa Peter Jackson, 1982 Annual Report Canadian International Development Agency, 1985 Congo 1965 Jules Gerard-Libois, Benoit Verhaegen, 2015-12-08 This seventh volume in the annual series of Congolese documents compiled by the Centre de Recherche et d'Information Socio Politiques in Brussels consists of official statements and memoranda proceedings of conferences etc In French with an English introduction by Herbert Weiss Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Perspectives de récolte et situation alimentaire #1, mars 2021 Organisation des Nations Unies pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture, 2021-03-29 Selon les évaluations de la FAO l'échelle de la plante 45 pays dont 34 en Afrique et 9 en Asie ont besoin d'une aide alimentaire extérieure Les conflits et les chocs ont
