Which London School? & the South-East 2011 ,2011-04 Containing everything you need to know about independent schooling in Greater London and the surrounding area this comprehensive guide is aimed at helping parents and children through the process of choosing the right school in London and the south east Which London School? and the South-East 2010/2011 Alex Sharratt,2010-06 This guide to independent schooling in London provides up to date details of day boarding and nursery schools in London day and boarding schools in surrounding counties and international schools and colleges of further education Eye Guidance in Natural Scenes Benjamin W. Tatler,2009 Successfully completing many forms of behaviour requires that humans look in the right place at the right time This has generated a large volume of research aimed at understanding how the eyes are guided This special issue demonstrates that the decision about where to look involves a large number of factors from low to high level constraints New models of eye guidance are presented and these offer converging approaches to understanding how we inspect complex scenes Importantly this special issue brings together evidence from a range of settings from static scene viewing to real world environments in order to fully assess our current understanding of eye guidance in natural scenes Which London School & the South-East ,2012 Prep School

Children Vyvyan Brandon,2009-10-13 Since the days when nine year old Tom Brown set off by stage coach to be prepared for entry to Rugby middle class British boys have been sent away to prep school Here children aged seven to thirteen have been systematically groomed for public school for gentlemanly life for military service for colonial rule and for worldly or in the case of Harry Potter wizardly success In a compelling and sometimes shocking account Vyvyan Brandon dwells not on the adult purposes behind a peculiarly British institution but on the lives of the children More than two hundred youngsters appear in these pages describing their schooldays through memoirs letters diaries poetry fiction and interviews The impressions left happy or miserable comic or tragic were indelible The pupils responses were seldom expressed at the time for according to the ancient maxim children should be seen but not heard This book gives them a voice In doing so it reveals a neglected area in the history of childhood and casts a sharp beam of light on the national character The Farm at Holstein Dip Carroll Engelhardt,2012-08-15 Carroll Engelhardt s parents grew up in homes without electricity on farms without tractors and began farming in the same way As a farm boy in northeastern Iowa he thought that history happened only to important people in earlier times and more exotic places After decades of teaching he at last perceived that history happens to us all and he began writing this book Set within the thoughtfully presented contexts of the technological revolution in American agriculture the Second World War the Cold War and the emerging culture of affluence The Farm at Holstein Dip is both a loving coming of age memoir and an educational glimpse into rural and small town life of the 1940s and 1950s Engelhardt writes about growing up in a spacious farmhouse where life was centered in the kitchen and frugality dictated that every purchase be weighed carefully His chores grew up with him he fed chickens and gathered eggs at age six rode a horse on the hayfork at nine or ten milked cows by hand at eleven and hired out to other farmers to load bales in the field and work in the haymow at fifteen The simple pleasures and predictable routines of a Saturday night at the movies in nearby Elkader Pioneer Days on the 4th of July Confirmation Sunday class picnics and baseball and basketball games play out against a background of rural decline alternating economic uncertainty and prosperity and Cold War anxiety next to polio he most feared Communist subversion and atomic blasts The values and contradictions imparted by this evolving mix of international national and local cultures shaped his coming of age Engelhardt brings us into the world of his fourth generation farm family who lived by the family and faith based work ethic and concern for respectability they had inherited from their German and Norwegian ancestors His writing has a particularly Iowa flavor a style that needs no definition to those who live in the state Readers will discover the appeal of his wry humorous and kind observations and appreciate his well informed perspective on these transformative American decades
